Clubs

Most of Co-Lin's success is held in clubs. Co-Lin takes great pride in the activities of its students in prestigious organizations like Phi Theta Kappa, Sojourners, B.S.U. and V.I.C.A. These few organizations named here are just a small number of the diverse clubs on campus.

Many clubs get their start early in the year at Co-Lin's annual "Club Fair" This is a project sponsored each year by Phi Theta Kappa Honor Society. It gives all of the clubs and organizations on campus the opportunity to display materials about their club, answer any questions, and give people the opportunity to sign up for a club of their interest.

The Trillium and Wolf Tales staffs have put many hours of work into the yearbook and monthly newspaper. So, as you can see, clubs may be a lot of fun and games, but they are also a load of responsibilities and such for the officers and active members. Co-Lin's clubs have become a long tradition. As new officers take their leadership positions to preside over these long standing organizations, new ideas will be interwoven, allowing the clubs to become popular hits among students.

STUDENTS

Co-Lin is not only a great place for education, it is a great place to meet new friends. The grill and cafeteria are where many students enjoy being with each other. Lake Lincoln is also a great place to hangout during the fall and spring. Studying is not always a full-time job for students at Co-Lin because of many activities. There are many intramural sports and activities such as volleyball, softball, and ping pong. Also don't forget about Spring Fling Week, it's a week full of activities just by itself. Students just never stop going, either their studies or social lives keep them young and abreast.

REFLECTING THROUGH THE YEAR

The 1997-98 Trillium editors, Ricky Moak and Shelley Smith, would like to extend a tremendous "thank-you" to everyone who devoted their time and effort to the 1998 Trillium. We send out a special thanks to Burlian Walker, Johnny Smith, and the Trillium Staff for the many hours they have contributed to the 1997-1998 edition of the Trillium. Without their support, this yearbook would not have been a success.

We hope that we have succeeded in our attempt to present to you, the faculty and student body, a lifelong enjoyable yearbook. As you reflect back, we want this yearbook to bring you fond memories of your days at Copiah-Lincoln Community College.

Copiah-Lincoln Community College

Natchez Campus

A HIT IN THE COMMUNITY FOR 26 YEARS

Co-Lin/Natchez continues to be an exciting "Place to Be." It has been a hit in the Miss-Lou area for over 26 years. Its new academic facilities and reputation for educational excellence continue to attract students to its campus year after year. The fall semester began with an enrollment of more that 700 fulltime and parttime, traditional and nontraditional students. This enrollment figure reflected a significant increase in the number of traditional students on campus.

Co-Lin/Natchez continues to be an institute that is dedicated to providing the best service possible for its students. Dr. Ronnie Nettles, the new Dean of the Natchez campus, stated that he was "extremely pleased with the way [the] school year started." He also stated that "the admission and business office staffs...worked very long hours and [the] faculty...agreed to teach additional classes to help students."

Co-Lin/Natchez continues to improve its image as an institute of educational excellence not only in the surrounding areas but also in far-reaching areas of the world with programs like Elderhostel and the Natchez Literary Celebration.

Co-Lin/Natchez with its new technologies and advanced computer programs continues to prepare students, faculty, administrators, and staff with the knowledge and skills needed to meet the special challenges and opportunities the 21st century will bring.

As Co-Lin/Natchez continues to move boldly into the next century, it does so with great excitement and anticipation and with an open invitation to all those individuals with desires for growth and advancement to come and be a part of its present and future because Co-Lin/Natchez is and will continue to be the "Place to Be."

Tracy Floyd welcomes visitors to the Natchez campus.
